SEAMAN'S DISCHARGE BOOK

R790701

IMPORTANT

1. This Discharge Book is your property and its loss may cause you difficulty in verifying your sea service.
2. Your Discharge Book must, on demand, be produced to a Superintendent, a proper officer, the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen, an official of the Merchant Navy Establishment Administration, your employer or to the master of a United Kingdom registered ship in which you are employed.
3. If you have handed your Discharge Book to your employer or the master for safe custody and it is not returned to you on your leaving the ship, you should apply to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen, Cardiff or to a Superintendent.
4. Should this Discharge Book be lost, destroyed or defaced, you are required, if you are continuing in sea-going employment, to apply to a Superintendent for a new Discharge Book. A fee may be payable.
5. When there is no space for further entries in any section of this Discharge Book, you should apply for a new book.

NOTE:- Any person other than the person to whom this Discharge Book was issued who comes into possession of it should deliver it to a Mercantile Marine Superintendent or send it to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen, St. Agnes Road, Gabafla, Cardiff, postage unpaid.
